

STRASBOURG BRASS QUINTET

Strasbourg Brass Quintet is a French chamber music ensemble comprised of five professional musicians. Since their days at the music high school “Conservatoire National de Musique de Strasbourg”, the artists, have shared a common concept of musical aesthetic. Whereas the horn player has studied at the music high school “Conservatoire National de Musique de Nancy”. Today this mutual perception of music has brought them together once again in this exceptional ensemble.

The originality of the Strasbourg Brass Quintet lies in its utilization of the bass trombone as a low register instrument. This decision allows for a naturally balanced sonority and expansive polyphonic transparency at the heart of the brass quintet. Strasbourg Brass Quintet plays the major works of the repertoire and his own arrangements very close to the originals.